

Mr. Gordon Kraft - Chief Architect, Founder, Chairman, CEO, CTO

Mr. Kraft is a serial entrepreneur and has founded several successful companies. Mr. Kraft was the Manager of Software Development for Microform Data Systems, Director Advanced Systems, and National Sales Manager. Designed DAS/CM, SYSTEM/C, CARMS - Computer Assisted Records Management fore runners of today's Internet.

Starting out as the senior Sales VP executive with Award Software the world's leading BIOS supplier he demonstrated his business expertise by consistently exceeding quota and leading his team to develop innovative sales solutions. Mr. Kraft sold over 5 Million Award Rom Bios in his year and a half time at Award and was an independent Rep, not on payroll.

As Founder, Chairman and CEO of DiagSoft the world leader in PC diagnostics - sold over 35 million OEM Bundled copies of QAPLus (Gordon wrote the first versions of QAPLus using Turbo Pascal), he led the company to capture 85% of the Global PC diagnostic market. Gordon also created ETSC - Electronic Technical Support Centers. He personally closed and established alliances with a number of companies including Intel, AT&T, NEC, DEC, IBM, and smaller PC OEM's like Micronics.

During this time Mr. Kraft also represented Hawaii on the Governor of Hawaii's Aloha on Tour Trade Mission to China and Taiwan presenting High Tech Hawaii development. US State Department was very involved.

He successfully sold DiagSoft to Sykes Enterprises on a Pooling of Interest Tax Free Merger, working directly with John Sykes.

Mr. Kraft founded Artificial Inc. As CEO and chairman he designed the GHK Digital Library, now called the AiLibrary(tm) and provided leadership in guiding the company to become an advanced leader in the development of Virtual Worlds on the Internet. He was instrumental in guiding this effort through numerous challenges being on the leading edge of this development.

Mr. Kraft served as Chairman of BroadBand Networks Corp. Mr. Kraft also served on the board of Directors for Star Power Home Theaters in Dallas for over 10 years, where he still holds an interest.

Mr. Kraft founded AILibrary, Inc. where he holds the position of Founder, CEO and Chairman.

Mr. Kraft CoFounded the APBA Offshore Racing, LLC. serving as Director and later as Chairman, of the APBA Offshore racing, the LLC had a 99yr. Exclusive License for the National Offshore Division of the APBA. He was recognized for hosting political and business dignitaries VIP's on his Lazzara yacht DREAMS, to increase the sports growth and popularity. He was also the VP of Television for the APBA Offshore Race show on the SPEED Channel.

Mr. Kraft is participating as a Board Advisor, in FIND IT's sales and business activities.